Jacqueline Liu

GDYO Concerto Competition Winner

Jackie Liu is currently an 11th grader at Plano West Senior High School. She is privileged to study with the renowned pedagogue Ronald Houston. Under his tutelage, Jackie has won top prizes in several competitions. In April 2019, she was invited to perform on NPR's From the Top show #370 in Atlanta, Georgia. In January 2020, Jackie was the Grand Prize Winner of Collin County Young Arts Competition and will perform Bartok Viola Concerto with the Plano Symphony Orchestra on March 21. Additionally, Jackie was selected for NYO 2020 and has been accepted into the Perlman summer program with scholarship. Jackie was named principal violist in TMEA Regions 24 and 25's top orchestras, and has served as the principal violist of the Greater Dallas Youth Orchestra since 2019.

In the auditions for the TMEA All State Orchestra, she was consistently ranked first chair of the top orchestras for the past three years. In addition, she frequently volunteers to perform at private parties and retirement homes as soloist and in groups such as Plano Teen Harmony and the JDR Viola Power ensemble. Her experience performing at Dallas homeless shelters with Viola Power was one of the most rewarding moments of her life. In her free time, she enjoys cooking, spending time with friends, watching Netflix, listening to true crime podcasts, and looking at pictures of food online.

Subee Kim

GDYO Concerto Competition Winner

Subee Kim, is 18 years old from Plano, Texas and is currently homeschooled. She has been playing the flute from when she was 11 under the guidance of Monica Song. Her individual achievements include: performing at Carnegie Hall for 1st place in the concert artists international "VIRTUOSO" competition; 1st place in the grand prize virtuoso international music competition in London; 2nd place in the Juanita Miller concerto competition; 2nd place in the Donna Marie Haire National Young Artist Competition; Honorable mention in the National young arts foundation; Honorable Mention in the Music Teachers National Association (MTNA) senior woodwind competition in Texas; First place in the Dallas symphonic junior sonata festival competition; named outstanding flute soloist and outstanding duet in the Texas flute society solo and ensemble competition multiple times. She has performed in several masterclasses for well-known flutists including Carol Wincenc, Jeffrey Khaner, Jasmine Choi, William Bennett, Mimi Stillman, Jim Walker, Julien Beaudiment, Claudia Riberio Do Nascimento, Gabriel Gimenes, Elizabeth McNutt, and Conner Nelson. She currently studies with Monica Song and Won Lee. In her free time, she enjoys watching movies with her dog, Mochi.
